About This Game

You are alone in a medieval tower that you must defend against a large onslaught of demonic enemies. Inspired by the, “Tower,” Tarot Card, and the Graphic Novel series, “Heavy Metal,” enjoy your attempts to stay alive in this great HTC Vive game.

Yes, you do get to slay a dragon in virtual reality. That is, if you kill the army and 3 dynamic bosses before that.

But wait, there’s more. You have superpowers. Interact with the entire world and all its weapons in super speed. Adrenaline mode allows you to slow time to a crawl as you slay your enemies with beautiful, bloody, bravado. However, you’re going to need it, given that you are going to encounter spell casting necromancers, acrobatic warrior archer maidens, minotaurs, the scariest knight you’ll ever meet, and of course a fire breathing dragon. This in addition to an entire army trying to kill you.

Another interesting fact: This game contains clues to win one million dollars in Bitcoin. Yes, this game is the second game in a 6 part series that includes clues to find One million dollars. Of course, you have to play to win, and these clues are hidden very well.

If you’re smart, you are probably thinking, “But this is an HTC Vive Game. The very nature of a medieval tower involves stairs.” That is correct. We invented a way that you can naturally walk upstairs in the HTC Vive. Enjoy!
We hope you play our game. We put months of love and care into scaring the crap out of our players Please enjoy The Tower:
Last Stand.

This game has potential, but I think it requires a lot more refinement. I found the spear throwing mechanism quite unrealable and unnatural feeling. Additionally aiming with the long bow feels poorly done compared to the other bow shooting titles. The graphics and animations don't seem up to scratch with the other titles available in the same price category. Given the price of only a few dollars there is no harm in purchasing this, but there are other games you could spend it on.. I wrecked a Minotaur with a bow and arrow...IN BULLET TIME!!! You can easily get immersed in this game fighting off hoards of knights and skeletons. The bosses are tough but super satisfying to defeat. Even though you're in a tower, there's lots of room to explore and play around in. The weapons they supply also gives you a variety of options to kill your enemies with.

There are some bugs I ran into, but it was nothing that teleporting around didn't fix. Hopefully there's an update to fix that soon.. This game is so fun. Does it have some qwerks and bugs? yes. I have faith in this team to fix them. Aside from that, once you get the hang of it, it's amazingly fun and I can't wait to see more. Definitely would buy again. Standing at the top of the tower looking down from the ledge. Throwing bombs and flaming arrows. Watching my enemies ragdoll into the air. Hand to hand combat? More please.. This game is incredibly fun! You fight waves of oncoming enemies using a bow and arrow, swords, spears, bombs, and there\u2019s also a bullet time mechanic to slow down time. I was blowing minotaurs up, teleporting around, fighting bosses, and trying to take down a dragon at the end! It's hard not to feel the adrenaline rush when you start to become overrun by enemies.

There are a few bugs, but I think the overall experience is amazing and absolutely worth trying.

Hoping for updates in the future.
